UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
Court of Appeals

CHRISTINA CLEMENT and
HH EMPRESS QUEEN CHRISTINA LOCS IS OUR ARTIFACT OF FAITH

Plaintiff,

v.

Attorney General Merrick Garland;
Chief Justice John Roberts Jr.,
Secretary General of the United Nations;
Registrar-Peace Palace Carnegie Pleinz et al in their official capacity

Defendant,

Civil No: 1:24-cv-00479-RC
USCA CASE NUMBER 24-5263

01/20/2025

Subject: Request for Unilateral Mutual Agreement in Support of Justice and Inaugural address from the 1st President of Black America

To all whom it may concern,

I trust this email finds you well. I am reaching out in earnest with a heartfelt plea for your assistance in facilitating a fair and just resolution in the case before us. It is my firm belief that the relief sought by the plaintiff, in light of the circumstances and systemic struggles we face, is not only necessary but imperative for the well-being of those affected.

The oppression we endure as a people is not a mere inconvenience—it is a relentless weight, pressing upon us day after day, and it shows no sign of lifting. In the face of this growing tyranny, we are exhausted. We seek, with humility and a deep sense of urgency, the opportunity for a fair chance—a judgment that reflects the principles of justice and equality that should underpin the foundation of our nation.

In the solution I have presented, I propose not just a path forward for us, but a blueprint for harmonious coexistence for all people. This vision calls for a separation, yes, but one that is rooted in respect, understanding, and love. It is a vision that aligns with the ideals set forth by the founding fathers of our Constitution—ideals that emphasize liberty, justice, and the pursuit of happiness for every individual.

Through my research and understanding, I believe we have strayed from this vision. We have failed to achieve the harmony that was originally intended. As a people led by faith, it is crucial that we operate from a place of love and compassion, which is the very foundation of all true justice.

It is in this spirit that I ask for your support in achieving a unilateral mutual agreement with the judge, one that will allow the relief we have sought to be granted without further delay or obstruction. This decision is not just for us—it is for the future of all people who have been impacted by systemic injustice, and for the chance to rebuild a society based on love, respect, and mutual understanding.

I pray that God moves in your heart to take action on this matter and that you find the strength and resolve to stand with us in support of justice. May you act in favor of what is right, granting full relief for the plaintiff appellate, and may we, as a nation, find our way back to the harmonious vision that was originally intended for all.

Thank you for your attention to this urgent request. I trust that you will consider it with the seriousness and empathy it deserves.

With gratitude and respect,

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

“Rev. Dr. Christina Clement,
8 The Green, Suite 21215

Dover, DE 19901

678-780-5557

Rule 5 (c) Signing. A filing made through a person’s electronic –filing account and authorized by that person, together with that person’s name on a signature block, constitutes the person’s signature.

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I hereby certify that on January 23, 2024, I uploaded the foregoing to the Clerk of the Court using the e-filing court system address 333 Constitution Ave, NW Washington DC 20001, which clerk will send notice to all parties.

“CHRISTINA CLEMENT

THE OFFICE OF STATE OF LOC NATION GLOBAL PUBLIC BENEFIT CORP

8 The Green
Suite 21215
Dover, DE 19901
info@stateoflocnation.com

Inaugural Address of the 1st Black President of Black USA and America

Rev Dr Christina Loren Clement

Jan 20, 2025

My fellow Americans and global family,

Today, we stand at the crossroads of history. We stand together as one people, yet shaped by the many paths we've traveled, and the countless lives that have brought us here. I am humbled and honored to take the oath of office today, not just as your President, but as a reflection of the dreams, struggles, and triumphs of so many who have come before me. I stand before you as a Black American, a Jamaican, an Aboriginal, an Indigenous person—and ultimately, as a descendant of all people of copper-colored descent. GODs Child. My identity is a tapestry woven from the history of my ancestors—ancestors who were stolen, oppressed, and systematically exploited. I am the product of generations who endured the brutality of illegal human farming and who persevered through centuries of struggle. Their resilience lives in me, in all of us. From the shores of Africa, to the islands of the Caribbean, to the original lands of this continent, our people have always been a part of the fabric of this nation, even when that nation refused to recognize our humanity. We were forced to build, to fight, and to survive under the most inhumane conditions. But our spirits could not be broken. This day is not just about me. It is about the millions of Black, Indigenous, and marginalized people whose stories have long been ignored. It is about the generations of struggle, the ones who fought not only for survival, but for dignity, for recognition, and for equality. I stand here because of them. This moment is their victory, too. But let us not forget that the work is not finished. The chains of the past may have been broken, but the scars remain. Systemic injustice, economic disparity, and racial discrimination still plague our communities. Too many of our people still face the struggle for basic rights—the right to a fair wage, the right to quality education, the right to safety in our own neighborhoods. These battles are not over, and they will not be forgotten. As your President, I pledge to you that I will lead with understanding, humility, and an unwavering commitment to justice. I will honor the sacrifices made by my ancestors by fighting for a future where every single American, regardless of their ethnicity, background, or place of origin, has the chance to thrive. We cannot rest while so many of our brothers and sisters are still denied that opportunity. I am not here to divide us. I am here to unite us. We must recognize that our strength lies in our diversity—in the richness of our different cultures, languages, and experiences. We must honor the dignity of every person, regardless of their ethnic heritage or the color of their skin. The wounds of the past must be healed, and the promises of the future must be secured for all. Let us work toward a nation where every child, no matter their ethnicity, walks into a classroom knowing they have the same opportunities as anyone else. Let us build a society where the descendants of the enslaved, the Indigenous, the immigrant, and the marginalized can walk through life with the full recognition of their worth, their humanity, and their rights. This is a nation built on ideals of liberty, freedom, and justice for all—but those ideals have not yet been fully realized. The Constitution of the United States promises equality, but it is up to us, all of us, to make that promise real. We must not rest until justice flows like a river, and righteousness like a mighty stream, for every person of every background, of every color, of every creed. So today, as I take the oath of office, I do not do so alone. I do so as a representative of the struggles and triumphs of all people, from all walks of life, from all corners of this great nation. Together, we will rise, not just as one nation, but as one people—people of every shade, every culture, every ethnic heritage—working side by side for the common good. Let us embrace the work ahead, knowing that though the road may be long, the victory is certain. And may we walk this path with love, with unity, with courage, and with the unshakeable belief that we are stronger together. May God bless you all, may God bless this great country, and may we all strive to honor the full legacy of the people who came before us by building a future where all are truly free.

Thank you. I love you

“Rev. Dr. Christina Clement,
President of Black USA and America
January 20, 2025

Rule 5 (c) Signing. A filing made through a person’s electronic –filing account and authorized by that person, together with that person’s name on a signature block, constitutes the person’s signature.

7:38 5G 36

attorneycrump attorneycrump · Original audio

The mayor of Chicago talking about the raids coming to his city and exposing the white supremacy behind it
FOX LOCAL
CHICAGO PREPARING FOR POSSIBLE IMMIGRATION RAIDS

3,323 181 677

Liked by drtartt and others

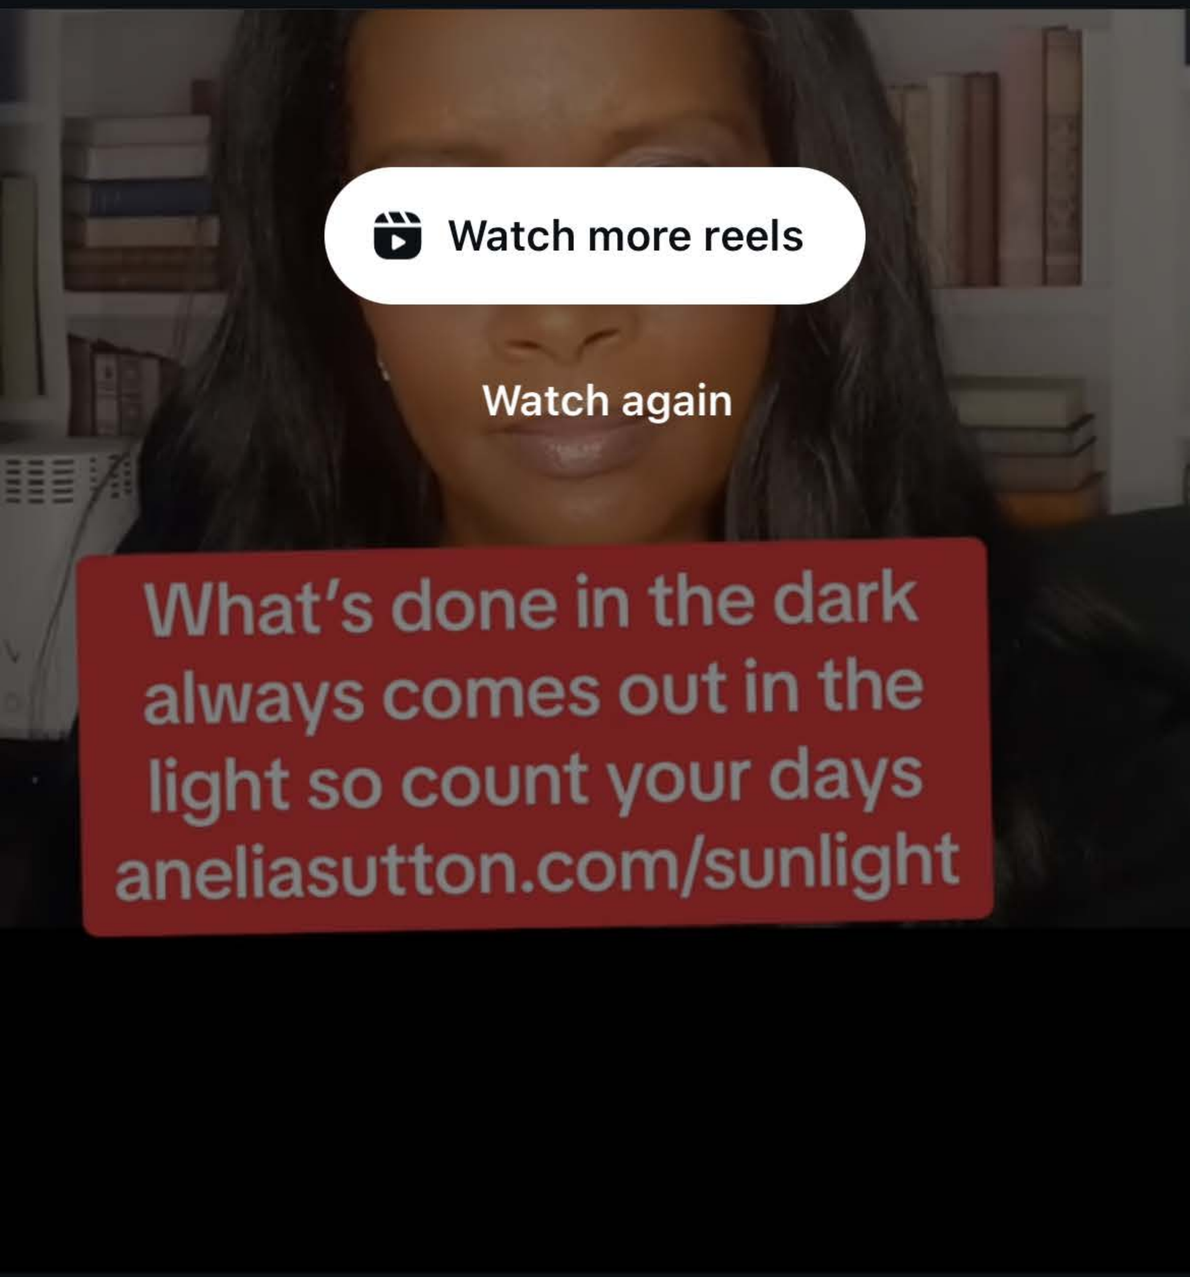
attorneycrump Repost from @cp198631.

7:40 5G 35



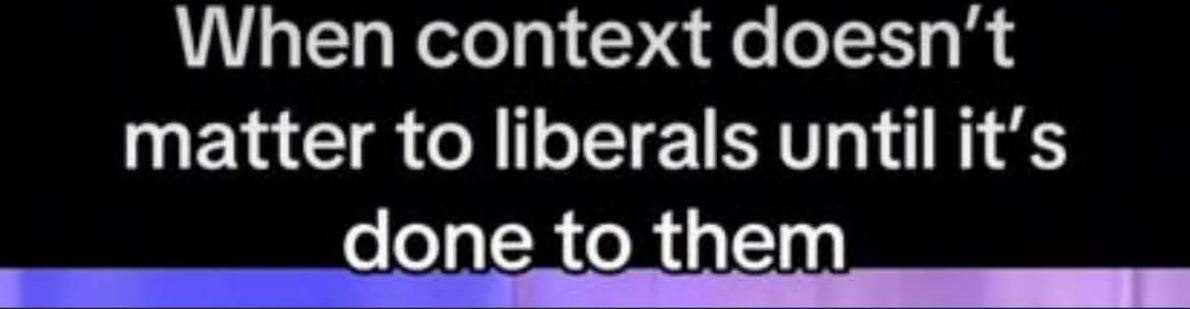
Watch more reels
Watch again
What's done in the dark always comes out in the light so count your days aneliasutton.com/sunlight

81 12 3

aneliasutton Link in bio 🙌 The system isn't broken, it's rigged! Comment 'POWER' to take back... more

12 hours ago

adpabon



7:38 5G 36

Instagram 1

afrikan_echo and african.echo
Suggested for you
Follow

To Those who felt this and cried with her please Share this video 😭 💔

And that religion that that

FAIR USE: NO COPYRIGHT INTENDED

1,424 214 413

CLEMENT VS GARLAND

DC 1:24 CV
00479 RC

DC APPEAL
24-5263

Rev Dr CHRISTINA CLEMENT

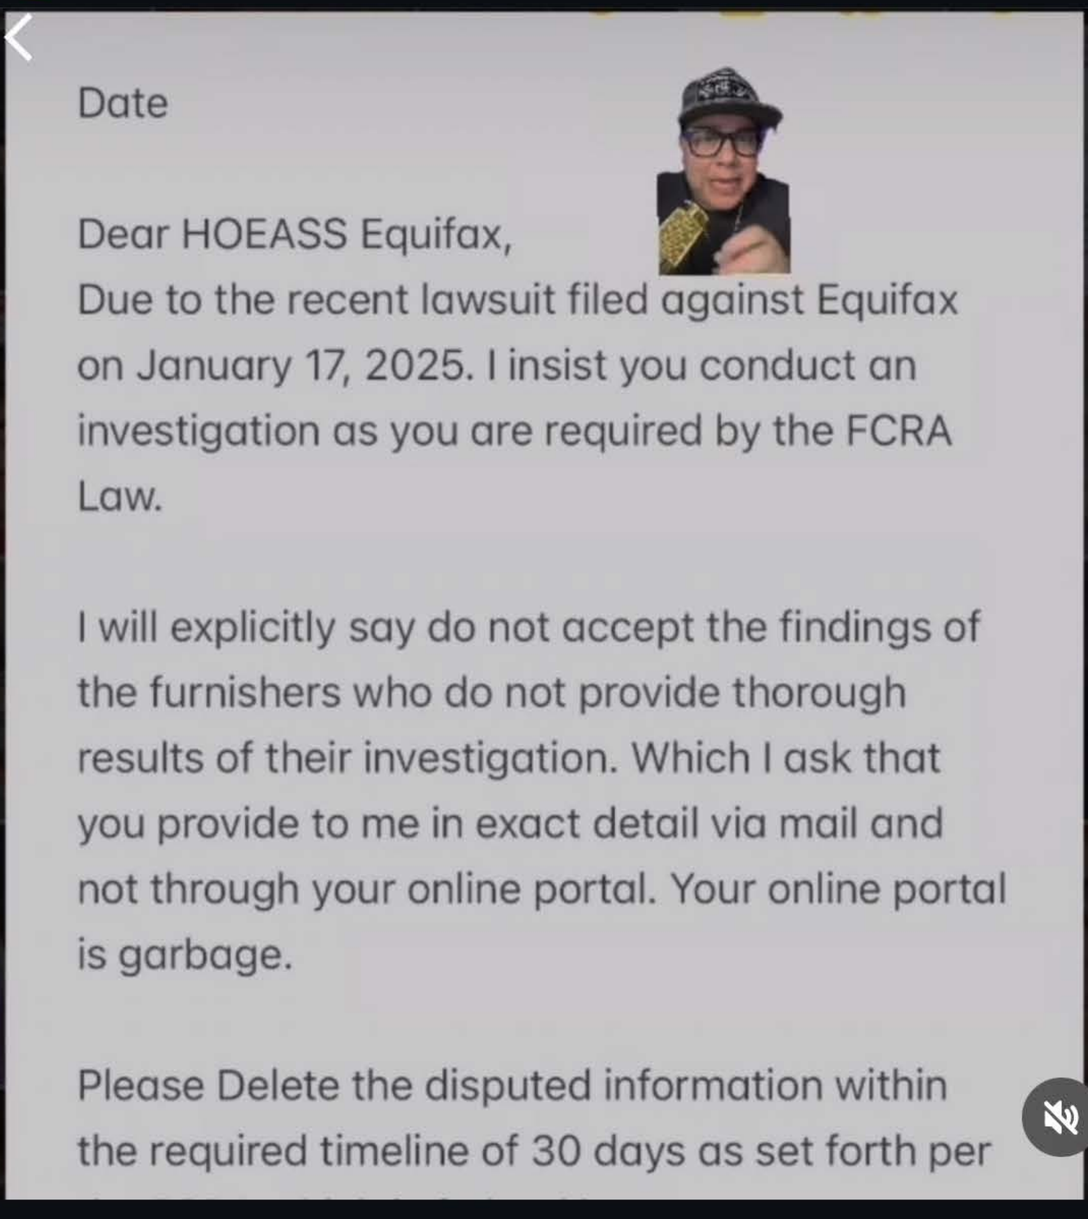
2024 1st President of Black USA

7:40 5G 35

tljohnson126 You only have.
$75, who are you bailing out?

2 minutes ago

thebizkore
50 Cent · Window Shopper (Instrumental)



Date
Dear HOEASS Equifax,
Due to the recent lawsuit filed against Equifax on January 17, 2025. I insist you conduct an investigation as you are required by the FCRA Law.
I will explicitly say do not accept the findings of the furnishers who do not provide thorough results of their investigation. Which I ask that you provide to me in exact detail via mail and not through your online portal. Your online portal is garbage.
Please Delete the disputed information within the required timeline of 30 days as set forth per

4

Liked by wyynkcafe and others
thebizkore The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) has sued both Equifax and... more

52 minutes ago

7:42 5G 35

Instagram 2

lilliemae_thecollective ...

Recounts, Rigged Elections and Foolery? Why Not Review Historical Presidencies and Make a Comparison

Jackson & Trump – The Age of the "Common" (White) Man

In 1828, Andrew Jackson was the first "Democrat" to become President of the United States. Please note "Democrats" during this time would be the modern-day "Republicans". FACT – Jackson's campaign strategy focused more on the common man than the educated man. Sound familiar? FACT – Politics, during this era, were influenced by interest groups and selection bias. Sound familiar? FACT – There was an increased in voter participation, all white males, during the Election of 1828. The difference in today's election is more than half of registered voters did not even attempt to use their right to vote. FACT – Andrew Jackson wanted the government to be run by people other than the aristocrats and elite. Therefore, he hired political supporters to fill government jobs, also known as, "the cabinet". Sounds very familiar doesn't it? TRUMP? This increase in "ignorant" people in the government led to major corruption and unqualified legislators. FACT - Jackson opposed members of Congress that he said looked out only for special interests. This was Trump's entire platform, "Away with the Establishment" which emulates Andrew Jackson's Spoils System.

Let's compare immigration strategies. Ever heard of the "Trail of Tears". Yeah, Andrew Jackson caused the eviction of Native Americans from Georgia. He bought them out with an "eviction" law. The Native Americans were forced to WALK from Georgia to Oklahoma, over 1,000 miles. Cruel and unusual, right? It is noted in history that almost 4,000 Native Americans died on this journey. This surely sounds like Trump's plan to build a wall, you know, keep them out, you know, put them out. See, none of this is by coincidence, it is merely history repeating. Get your knowledge up. I am not dropping anymore. FACT - Jackson owned slaves and advocated for the extension of it.

Who were Jacksonian supporters? West, South and Small Business Owners

Who did he have in his corner to support his campaign and cabinet? He relied on friends around the country who were closer to the people.

What was Jackson well known for? Pocket Veto

Humbly Submitted By:

Lillie Mae, Motivational Brown Gyrlz—MBG

8

Liked by iamnicolesabrina and others

lilliemae_thecollective Please Read This Carefully and Then Consult Your Own Sources For More... more

7:42 5G 35

Then Consult Your Own Sources For More... more

11 hours ago

ambrosiaforheads
Suggested for you

Follow

Yasiin Bey On The Importance Of Positivity In Rap Music

"I Don't Think We Need Anymore Crack Commercials For Our Community."

16.9K 513 3,191

Liked by carl__glover and others

ambrosiaforheads Yasiin Bey speaks candidly about the harm of negative narratives in Hip-Hop... more

January 5

Case #24-5263 Document #2095817 Filed: 01/23/2025 Page

itsdiosamf

Subscribe

Unknown man wearing satanic mask holding sign with apocalyptic Bible verse stuns North Texas neighbors

346 37 107

itsdiosamf 👀

View all comments

4 hours ago